SWIPCO Named Iowa Top Workplace for 2022

The recognition highlights SWIPCO's status as a top employer in the state, earning high marks among other organizations in its category.

ATLANTIC, IOWA – Southwest Iowa Planning Council (SWIPCO) has been named a 2022 Des Moines Register Iowa Top Workplace for 2022. The Register and WorkplaceDynamics evaluated survey responses from employees of participating employers. Top Workplaces are categorized by number of employees in Iowa and chosen based on employee feedback.

“It is an honor to be recognized as one of Iowa’s Top Workplaces,” said SWIPCO Executive Director John McCurdy. “Whether it’s public transit, housing rehab, or disaster relief, this recognition confirms what we already know—the employees who do the hard work here at SWIPCO are the reason for our success.”

“I do not know of a more caring and devoted staff who work hard every day as a team to help our neighbors in southwest Iowa,” continued McCurdy. “When our communities are in need, they know they can count on SWIPCO and SWITA to deliver for them.”

Southwest Iowa Planning Council is a high-performing, regionally focused partner committed to enhancing the vitality and quality of life in southwest Iowa using a collaborative and inclusive approach to regional community development, economic development, and public transit.
