SWITA Summer Fun Bus is Back

SWITA offers a safe, affordable transportation option to get school age children where they need to go over the summer in the cities of Atlantic, Glenwood, Harlan, Red Oak, and Shenandoah.

Atlantic, Iowa – Southwest Iowa Transit Agency (SWITA), Southwest Iowa's public transportation system, is offering the Summer Fun Bus again this year for the cities of Atlantic, Glenwood, Harlan, Red Oak, and Shenandoah. Service is open to the public including persons with disabilities.

Summer Fun Bus is a safe, reliable, and affordable way to get your student to their summer activities. SWITA's summer bus service will take your up to 12th grade age student to sports practice, swimming pool, Vacation Bible School, summer camp activities, band lessons, golf, the library, grandma's house, or anywhere else you pre-approve them to go (within two miles of city limits).

Summer Fun Bus starts the day after school is out and runs Monday thru Friday 7am to 5pm in Atlantic and 8am to 5pm in Glenwood, Harlan, Red Oak, and Shenandoah. Cost is $1 each way per child or $40 for an unlimited summer pass. Parents/Caregivers who wish to ride with their student may ride along for free.

To register for Summer Fun Bus, visit <https://www.swita.com/services/summer-fun-bus/> and complete the Summer Fun Bus Registration Form. You may submit the form via email to swita@swipco.org, print it out and mail it, or bring it to our office. You can pay for your student's rides online, or you can drop off or mail payment to SWITA, 1501 S.W. 7th Street, Atlantic, IA 50022.

For questions or to request a registration form, please contact the SWITA office, Monday thru Friday 6am to 5pm, at 712-243-2518 or 1-800-842-8065.
